30th Sunday of Ordinary Time
October 28th, 2018

Sunday Readings: Jeremiah 31:7-9 Proclaim your praise and say: The LORD has saved his people, the remnant of Israel. Hebrews 5:1-6 It was not Christ who glorified himself in becoming high priest, but rather the one who said to him: "You are my son." Mark 10:46-52 Bartimaeus threw aside his cloak, sprang up, and came to Jesus... "Master, I want to see."

Bartimaeus is a model of Christian discipleship; he lets his faith lead him to Jesus and then follows him. The link between faith and following is an encounter with Jesus: "Jesus, Son of David, have pity on me." We can speak of faith as the insight of action because faith brings us more eagerly and surely to make leaps of trust and hope concerning what is ultimately most important to us when our ordinary human tendency would counsel caution. Bartimaeus' cry to Jesus was for sight; he received that, but also a deeper faith and a lifelong journey of following Jesus. Jesus tells Bartimaeus that his "faith has saved" him.

Without persistence in prayer it will be impossible for us to follow Jesus faithfully. Encounters with Jesus in prayer keep our relationship to him healthy and strong. The prayer of petition reminds us that disciples can do nothing on their own without Jesus' help. Only with Jesus will we disciples not stumble. The dying and rising of the paschal mystery plays itself out in many ways. At times we are doing our faith—reaching out to those around us in need; at other times we are being our faith—taking time to call out to God to have pity on us.

Let Us Pray

To the Lord God who always helps us, let us pray in the name of Jesus...

- Let us pray that Christians may never neglect or silence those who cry out for help but gladly share with them the resources the Lord has given us.
- Let us pray that all forced migrants be welcomed and respected as children of God and receive the protection and assistance they need in the areas and countries to which they flee.
- Let us pray that young people who search for meaning in their lives will find the Lord Jesus a source of light and life.
- Let us pray for hearts open enough to give value to every one of God's children, whether known or strangers, and for faithful generosity in those still considering a gift to the Bishop's Annual Appeal.
- Let us pray for the sick and suffering. We pray for Larry Hanna, John Lahey-Wiggs, Jordyn Thibodeau, Kerry Anderson, Maki Zeroun, Jerry Weyer, Oliver Laviolette, Patti Pasloski, Greg Baranieski, Leon Janvier, Marlene Neil, Gene Swejda, Dwight Gervais, Ben Sawatzky, Claudie Dick, Marcia Urban, Sarah Denis, Ryan Lafleur, Gary Stimson, Lynn Graver. May they know the comforting presence of Christ the Healer.
- Let us pray for those who have died and for those who are mourning. We remember Neal Zakreski, on the 10th anniversary of his death, son of Allan & Grace Zakreski. We remember Rudolph Krakowski, on the 5th anniversary of his death, father of Wade & Patti Kindrachuk. May they rest in eternal peace.

God of mercy, you know our crosses. Grant us grace to bear them and to generously help others bear theirs. We ask this, as we ask all things, in the name of Christ Jesus our Lord.

GROW HOPE SASKATCHEWAN—Last chance to donate is Oct. 31 for the 2018 growing season. Through Grow Hope Saskatchewan you "become a farmer" and feed the hungry by sponsoring an acre of farmland in Saskatchewan. Generous farmers are donating the use of the land and their expertise to plant and harvest the crop, while seed and input costs are covered by your donations. Proceeds from the sale of the crop are then donated to Canadian Foodgrains Bank to provide emergency food supplies and long-term food security to people around the world — and the impact is multiplied because the donations will be matched four to one by the Government of Canada. Be part of Grow Hope Saskatchewan by sponsoring a partial acre, a full acre, or more! For info or to make a donation: <https://dscatholicfoundation.ca/special-appeals/grow-hope> or follow Grow Hope Saskatchewan on Facebook. If you are a farmer or land owner wanting to donate acres for spring of 2019, contact Myron Rogal in the diocesan Office of Justice and Peace at mrogal@rcdos.ca or (306) 659-5841.
