31st Sunday of Ordinary Time
November 4th, 2018

Sunday Readings: Deuteronomy 6:2–6 Hear then, Israel, and be careful to observe [the commandments], that it may go well with you and that you may increase greatly. / Hebrews 7:23–28 It was fitting that we should have such a high priest: holy, innocent, undefiled, separated from sinners, higher than the heavens. Mark 12:28b–34 [Jesus said,] "You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart, with all your soul, with all your mind, and with all your strength."

At the staff meetings of a religious institution I once worked for, we took turns leading an opening prayer. Many of us prepared prayers with detailed language, noting the day's feast or particular intentions drawn from the day's headlines. However, the only prayer I remember was led by a laywoman who began by saying, "God, we love you." I don't remember the rest of the prayer, but I've never forgotten her basic but profound beginning: "God, we love you."
 We ask God for a lot of things, we probably do plenty of complaining to God, and we do a good amount of thanking God. But how much time do we spend loving God?
 Jesus upholds the centrality of loving God in his answer to the scribe in today's Gospel. Instead of naming one of the 613 commandments of the Judaic Law as the "first," he quotes the central Jewish prayer, the Shema, and its injunction to love God with our whole being. This, for Jesus, is the most essential commandment.
 When was the last time you prayed, "God, I love you"? Loving God is different than loving a person you can actually see, touch, and hear—yet it's so fundamental to the spiritual life. Maybe, like couples who have been married a long time, we just assume God knows we love him. "We've been together so long, we don't even need to say it anymore."
 But even long-married couples renew their marriage vows and fall in love all over again. God is always reaching out in love to us, and Jesus challenges us today to recommit ourselves to God. Can we continue to fall in love with God? - by Janel Esker

Let Us Pray

To the Lord God who always helps us, let us pray in the name of Jesus...

- Let us pray that Church leaders will be living reminders that love of God and neighbour is greater than any law or statute.
- Let us pray that all governments would stop the exportation of arms to regimes where human rights are abused
- Let us pray that those who fell unloved will know god's love through the outreach of this community of faith.
- Let us pray that we may continue to support the ministry and vision of the Bishop's Annual Appeal.
- Let us pray for the sick and suffering. We pray for Elizabeth Bowlby Umali, Larry Hanna, John Lahey-Wiggs, Jordyn Thibodeau, Kerry Anderson, Maki Zeroun, Jerry Weyer, Oliver Laviolette, Patti Pasloski, Greg Baranieski, Leon Janvier, Marlene Neil, Gene Swejda, Dwight Gervais, Ben Sawatzky, Claudie Dick, Marcia Urban, Sarah Denis, Ryan Lafleur, Gary Stimson, Lynn Graver. May they know the comforting presence of Christ the Healer.
- Let us pray for those who have died and for those who are mourning. May they enjoy God's eternal banquet of love.

God of mercy, you know our crosses. Grant us grace to bear them and to generously help others bear theirs. We ask this, as we ask all things, in the name of Christ Jesus our Lord.

REMEMBERING OUR DEPARTED LOVED ONES

This past week we celebrated All Saints Day and All Souls Day. We are challenged to commemorate death and resurrection. We experience separation, grief, departure and "good-bye", as well hope, peace and even joy for our loved ones who have entered into the Resurrection of Jesus to eternal life. With Jesus, and the Saints, we know they are with us.....for we believe in the Communion of Saints.

Our display will be a reminder to pray for our departed, along with those you list in our Memorial Book, found in the place of welcome.

A display table will be set up in the north side of the church. You are invited to bring your framed pictures or memorial cards for display on our memorial table.
