Pentecost Sunday
June 4th, 2017

Today's Readings: Acts 2:1–11 “And they were all filled with the holy Spirit.” / 1 Corinthians 12:3b–7, 12–13 “For in one Spirit we were all baptized into one body,... and we were all given to drink of one Spirit.” / John 20:19–23 “[Jesus] said to them again, ‘Peace be with you. As the Father has sent me, so I send you.’”

Send Out Your Spirit

“Lord, send out your Spirit, and renew the face of the earth,” we sing as the refrain for the Responsorial Psalm today. The Spirit sent and received at Pentecost is a spirit of renewal, unity, empowerment, and clarity. The description of being filled with the Spirit, and its lasting effects, is powerful. Those filled with the Holy Spirit can change the hearts of those they encounter. However, even in unity, there is a great array of spiritual gifts, as we hear from St. Paul in the Second Reading. The Spirit calls us to be one in Christ, but to participate in our different ministries and “activities.” The beauty of the Holy Spirit is described in the Sequence from today’s liturgy, in which we call forth the Spirit to fill our inmost being, and to shed all seven gifts upon us.

Where are the Spirit’s gifts found in you? Are you called to serve others at prayer, or to teach? Perhaps you are given insight and understanding. On this Pentecost day, name your gift of the Spirit, and celebrate the manifestation of the Spirit and the benefit you are called to confer. We who are part of the one body are given the same Spirit, and joyfully unite in proclaiming—each in our own language and expression—that Jesus is Lord. May we take to heart the words of today’s Sequence, Veni, Sancte Spiritus, as we sing, “Give them virtue’s sure reward; / Give them your salvation, Lord; / Give them joys that never end. Amen. / Alleluia!”

Pentecost Sunday.....The Birthday of the Church....June 4, 2017

Pentecost Sunday, which culminates the Easter Season, is a glorious day in which we commemorate the descent of the Holy Spirit upon the Apostles and Mary in the Upper Room where they were gathered in fear. After receiving the HOLY SPIRIT they were transformed into courageous witnesses to the Faith, and from the upper room went to all parts of the earth to spread the Good News of Christ. It is for this reason that Pentecost is called the Birthday of the Church. The Church, as the Body of Christ, on this day became the visible presence of the Risen Lord in the world. Each of us as members of that Body of Christ, participates in the role of witnessing to, and building up the Kingdom of God.

This is a day to reaffirm our Faith to its fullness, and to be grateful, and celebrate the 2000+ years of Tradition, Life, Teaching, and Worship of Our Church. We need to be proud of Our Parish as well as the Universal Church...proud and grateful to be a part of the Body of Christ, the Catholic Church. And, rather than find fault or be negative toward the Church (as is the culture in which we live sometimes) that to know, despite human weakness and failings over the years, Christ is still with us, as He promised, living with us, through His Holy Spirit, in Word and Worship, especially in the Eucharist.

On this day on the Birthday of the Church, we celebrate our Candidates and children who completed their Sacraments of Initiation by receiving Baptism and or their First Eucharist and celebrating the Sacrament of Confirmation. Congratulations to them and their families. We wish them God's peace and abundant blessings as they continue on their faith journey in our Parish.

A Word From Pope Francis

Dear friends, Let us open the doors to the Spirit, let ourselves be guided by him, and allow God’s constant help to make us new men and women, inspired by the love of God which the Holy Spirit bestows on us! How beautiful it would be if each of you, every evening, could say: Today at school, at home, at work, guided by God, I showed a sign of love towards one of my friends, my parents, an older person! How beautiful!
